ANDOVER HIGH SCHOOL

Changing . . . growing . . . developing . . .
Thus we have spent three years of our lives.
We have learned so many things since sophomore year:
Facts with uses only time will prove to us,
Concepts not tried, not proved, not wholly understood.
Only we-ourselves-reflect the change,
After a period of altering thoughts,
Developing characters, maturing minds.
Our world—even that is changed,
Is widened, is enlarged,
Is more ours to know,
Is more ours to understand.
Here, in these pages, is our past world:
The memories, the work, the laughter,
All ours to keep, ours to cherish
Forever.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1963, are privileged to dedicate this, our issue of the Andanno, to Mr. Philip F. Wormwood and are particularly happy to do so in the first year of his administration.

Our association with him has always been both pleasant and profitable; and we are grateful not only for his long-time interest in the welfare of our Class, but also for the fact that his principalship of the school began before our graduation.

"Those figures were in reference to the problem, boys."

"Lennie, may I borrow three cents?"

"So you don't agree with me."

"In Maine . . ."

"Straighten out your tie."

"Six is not spelled with an E, Mr. Hopkins."

"No, child, I do not jest."

"Do you brush after every meal?"

"When Shakespeare wrote this play . . ."

"I'd let that seam out just a little."

"So you like 'The Rime of the Ancient Mariner'."

"I kinda like those short skirts."

"This experiment is supposed to prove that . . . that . . ."

"What do you think of when I say 'person'?"

The Polio Peace Pact.

"Was the test really too hard?"

"If they only knew . . ."

"All right every one, it's Chubby Checker; Grab your partners!"

Reminiscence

Fresh from junior high, we entered our sophomore year at Andover High School—and promptly got lost. How could anyone ever be expected to find his way around those long curving corridors? And those lockers! The combinations just wouldn't work.

During that year so many things happened to us. We had our first taste of biology . . . field trips . . . and dissections. Remember our class assembly? Well, how could anyone have followed the male cheerleaders at the Junior Class assembly? Remember how we looked up to the senior—they were taller than we were! We had the Iowa Tests . . . midyears . . . and finals. Remember Jack Clark—then Senior Class president—and his "Our Father . . ." instead of "I pledge allegiance . . ." Who could ever forget our successful (?) dance and bakery sale?

As juniors we found one thing the same—our lockers. They still wouldn't open! Yet conditions were different. We were juniors. There was actually a class below us!

That year brought so many exciting experiences. Everybody carried a little pink book and studied furiously for his driving test. We learned the hora and the twist. Remember Lost Horizon, that marvelous movie? We saw the innovation of the singing of (groan) "America" (end groan) at assemblies. We had the patch test and complained about high class dues. Remember the Rise of the Confederacy? Will we ever forget the week everyone looked more than a little like a cooked lobster? Oh, that beach party! Everyone became an avid knitter ("knit one, purl one"). May nineteenth was the day when we all had to face reality—College Boards. "I got 201—with luck!"

Finally there was the prom and all the fun of decorating . . . of untangling cheese-cloth . . . of building the castle and the butterfly . . . of making thousands of flowers . . . of running around frantically at the last moment. It was a wonderful time . . . a time to be remembered.

Seniors at last! And we still couldn't open our lockers! We had an old friend as principal, Mr. Wormwood. We thought up a different money making scheme—a bottle drive. "I'm sorry; we just brought our bottles back to the store yesterday." Tuesdays and Thursdays our spirits were dampened by the longer periods.

The new corp of sophomores were taller than we were, although it may have been just the appearance of height achieved by teased hair. Everyone had a birthday at least once a week, and the girls at lunch just had to sing "Happy Birthday".

The Slicker Girls and the Goober Boys organized themselves for we'll-never-know-what. The Hixon-Hopkins feud (alphabetical order, Mr. Hopkins!) grew in intensity. Somebody (maybe someone on the yearbook staff?) built a snowman on the roof.

Boys had to wear ties—remember some of them? Girls gave it a try too, but were somehow discouraged. "Bookie" Larry Paolino had a very unsuccessful football season. Maybe the baseball season will be more lucrative.

College was on almost everyone's mind. "Where have you applied?" We took College Boards . . . we wrote autobiographical sketches . . . we filed applications . . . we waited.

Some people devoted a week to training exercises and came back looking like a clipped rabbit. "You can always tell a Navy man!"

This was the year of going to the prom on a bus (?), of singing in the cafeteria, of bemoaning the fact that underclassmen had no finals, of counting the days left . . .

It is the year of graduating, of saying "good-bye," of leaving. It has been a sad year and a happy year; but, like all our years at Andover High, it has been a wonderful year.

After many hard practices, the cheerleaders found themselves ready to cheer for the football team and were greatly encouraged by the large student turnout. All through the football season the cheerleaders helped to spur school spirit and encourage participation in school rallies.

As basketball season arrived, the cheerleaders found themselves hampered by sicknesses, mainly among the senior regulars; nevertheless, the cheerleaders managed to struggle through the season and on into the Teck Tourney past-season.

The cheerleaders wish to thank Mrs. Madeleine Simeone for all the help and support she has given the girls during the past year.

FOOTBALL "1962"

An experienced and strong Andover High football team finished the season with the best record of any Andover team since we entered the Northeast Conference four years ago. The team, under the fine leadership of co-captains Barry Connors and Tom Coffman, compiled a seasonal record of four wins, three losses, and two ties.

Andover had very impressive victories over last year's conference champs; Woburn (27-0), and a strong Newburyport team, (21-20).

As always, the Little Three tilts were exciting. Again it was the strong Andover line that was the big factor. Both Methuen and North Andover were kept scoreless.

This was Andover's third straight year as Little Three champs, and we retired the trophy. Andover also received the Eagle-Tribune trophy for the best team in the greater Lawrence area. This was the first time we have won the award.

This year's team had many seniors on its roster. We had plenty of strength at guard with three seniors and a junior, Ron Hajj, Mike Barry, George Hurst, and Roger Jackson.

Bob Partridge, another senior, filled in for injured Tom

Coffman on offense and did a great job. George Street and Skip Madden did a good job on the defensive end spots.

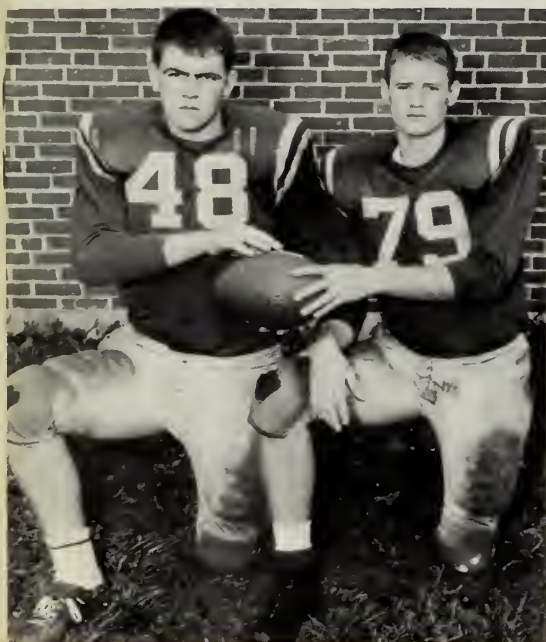

Our offensive ends were in excellent shape. Norm Wallace, Jim White, and Herb Westbrook covered these positions through the year and were a great help to our offensive attack with their pass catching and blocking.

Norm Wallace and Roger Jackson gave us good strength in the linebacker spots also. The backfield was made up of seniors, juniors, and sophmores. Dave Bennett, Jim Brent, and Skip Madden gave us the speed; Jim Clark, Ralph Dockray, and Tom Auchterlonie gave us the power running, while Kent Warner piloted the team at quarterback.

At the football banquet many awards were given. The Most Valuable Player of the team was Barry Connors. On offensive, Kent Warner, was awarded the most Outstanding Offensive Performer Trophy. In the defensive department, Norm Wallace, received the most Outstanding Defensive Performer Award. Don Emmons received the Attitude Award. Bill Carnie received the award for the Most Improved Player.

Congratulations on a wonderful season!

BOYS' BASKETBALL

This year Andover High School can be very proud of its basketball team. The team is one of the top ones in the Northeast Conference; it qualified for the Eastern Massachusetts Schoolboy Tournament; and it won the Plymouth Invitational Tournament.

The team has been led by Co-Captains Jim White and Tom Coffman along with Barry Connors, George Chetson, Art Yancy, and Hugh Emmerson. Jim Earley and Roger Jackson, both juniors, and Mike Barry and Kurt Emmerson, both seniors, have contributed much to its success.

A great deal of credit goes to the coach, Mr. Wilbur Hixon, and to the team for a job well done.

The season was highlighted by an upset win over the league-leading team, Winthrop, and several games won in overtime.

Many wishes for continued success to the boys who have worked so hard to make Andover High School's Basketball Team a winning one.

GYMNASTIC TEAM

Andover's Gym Team is enjoying another great season, with only one loss, under the able coaching of Mr. Dorsey. This loss was to the Springfield College Freshman Team, and that by only 1.6 points. Winchester was the closest opponent, and was defeated by a 15 point margin.

Co-Captain Bob Cargill has remained undefeated on the high bar, in free exercise, and in tumbling. Tom Auchterlonie has also remained undefeated on the side horse. Co-Captain Roger Hastings has been undefeated in league competitions and defeated only in the Springfield College Freshman meet. Kent Warner, another senior, has helped the team greatly with his high scores on the long horse. All four are looking towards medals in the state meet.

Underclassmen have also helped the team considerably. Sam Cataudella and Dennis Lyons, both juniors, have contributed much. Sophomores have also boosted the team. Ben Ardizonne and Warren Hastings, both threepiece men, Sam Murry, Moson Arnold, and Norm Auchterlonie have given the team needed strength.

The track team is again attaining a good record. It has ended the winter season with a 6-2 record and has placed second, beating St. John's, in the state meet. Co-Captains Herb Westbrook and Skip Madden have remained undefeated in their specialties: Herb in the hurdles; and Skip in the dash. Both hold the Northshore League record in these events. The team is made up mostly of juniors, and this should be a factor in their success next year. Don Emmons, Rick Nichols, and Herb Westbrook have kept Andover undefeated in the high jump. John O'Connor and Bill Carnie have done well in the 300, while John Clapper, Henry James, and Harry Dufton have shown well in the 600. Ralph Dockray and Paul Wadman have done very well in the shot put, with Ralph being defeated only once. In the distance runs, Lennie Sheehan, in the mile, and Phil Coates, in the 1000-yd. run, have placed well. This spring, along with the winter personnel, there will be Jim White, broad jump and hurdles; Kent Warner, Javelin; Ron Hajj, 880; Bob Cargill and Sam Catuadella, pole vault; and Roger Jackson in the discuss.

The team is looking forward to the Little Three Title, and maybe, with a lot of hard work, the Northeast Conference Title.

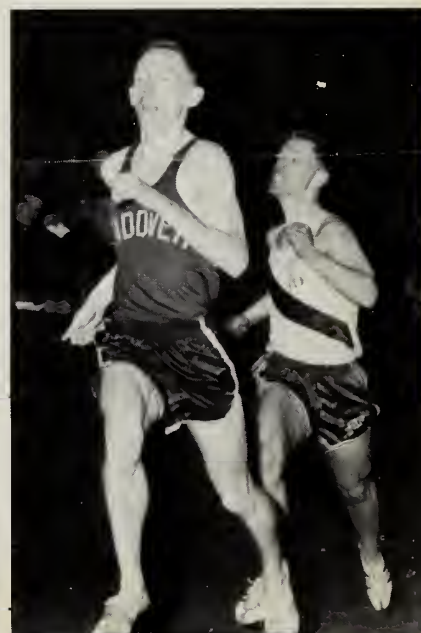

Andover has four men who hold the top mark in four events for the 62-63 season. They will get trophies for this feat. They are: Skip Madden, dash; Herb Westbrook, hurdles; Ralph Dockray, shot put; and Don Emmons, high jump.

The baseball team, under the able coaching of Mr. Theodore Boudreau, is looking forward to another good season. The retiring seniors are Captain Kevin Lynch, Norm Wallace, Dick Chadwick, and Jim Carpentier. There are many returning lettermen. All the seniors above along with Jim Early, Jim Brent, and Calvin Deyermond have achieved letters. All have expressed optimism about the coming season.

The cross country team had its troubles this year because of their entry into the Middlesex County League. It ended the season with a 4-6 record. Lennie Sheehan was top scorer for Andover. He was followed by Cliff Pike, Ed Parker, Co-Captain Ron Van Dewoestine, Co-Captain Robert Cargill, and Phil Coates.

According to Mr. Dorsey, cross country is gaining in interest, and in coming years, it should attain better records.

Ed Parker and Lennie Sheehan were elected Co-Captains for next year's squad.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year the girls' basketball team has seen much action and is proud of its 7-5 record. Although this does not seem to be very significant, the girls defeated every team that they had lost to in earlier competition, except Woodbury.

Among the outstanding senior members were Co-Captains Mary Passanisi and Joan Miller. As a forward, Mary scored many vital points in games against Woodbury and Bedford. Joan also did an excellent job on the defensive court and as a roving forward. Other senior members were Pat Hutchins, Edith Clark, Joan MacInnis, Mary Jane Anderson, Gayle Jacobson, Kathy Hayden, Pamela McAninch, Cynthia Burleigh.

Although some of the squad saw very little action, all displayed great skill; and the team revealed its depth in games against North Andover and Woodbury.

The Junior Varsity team enjoyed an equally successful season, with much hope for the future. It played an excellent defensive court; and with a little more practice on offensive technique, will be a great threat next year.

It is hoped that soon the girls will be entered in a conference with surrounding schools. The great potential and improvement showed by all throughout the season has been developed through the excellent coaching of Miss Strout.
